

HAYES BARTON DENTISTRY

CHARLOTTE C. HUNT, DDS

Welcome to Hayes Barton Dentistry

Greetings! One of the finest compliments a dentist can receive is the recommendation by a professional colleague who we respect highly. I am very happy for Dr. Andreaus and excited for this opportunity to continue providing the excellent care that you have been accustomed to. It has been my pleasure to work with many of you over the past five months, and I look forward to welcoming everyone in the new year.

What to Expect

You will always be greeted with a smile and warm welcome by our caring and professional team. We pride ourselves on being good listeners and are committed to customizing the care that is uniquely tailored according to your circumstances and objectives. At every visit, you can expect exceptional service, absolute comfort, and our undivided attention.

A Caring Team of Professionals

Our dental team members are highly trained regarding the most advanced materials and techniques, but what really sets us apart is our dedication to developing trusting relationships with the patients that we are privileged to serve. We place an emphasis on listening and caring as we work with patients to achieve their oral health goals and improve their quality of life. We believe that a comprehensive, personalized approach to dental care will create long-lasting comfort, function, and a naturally beautiful smile.
